1. Opening of the session

The fourth session of the Committee will be opened by the representative of the Secretary-General who will preside over the meeting until the election of the Chairman of the Committee.

2. Election of officers

In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1979/43, paragraph 3, the Committee shall elect from among its members a Chairman, three Vice-Chairmen and a Rapporteur, with due regard for equitable geographical representation.

3. Adoption of the agenda

In accordance with rule 13, paragraph 1, of the rules of procedure of the Council which is applicable, mutatis mutandis, to the Committee, the Committee shall at the beginning of each session, after the election of the Bureau when required, adopt the agenda for that session on the basis of the provisional agenda drawn up by the Secretary-General.

4. Organization of Work

In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1979/43, paragraph 11, at the beginning of each session, the Committee shall consider appropriate organizational matters, including the schedule of its meetings and the possibility of holding a general discussion on the measures adopted and the progress made in achieving the observance of the rights recognized in the Covenant. In this connection, the attention of the members of the Committee is drawn to the draft programme of work for the session, prepared by the Secretary-General in consultation with the Chairman of the Committee and in pursuance of the established practice (E/C.12/1990/L.1).

The Committee, at its second session, requested the Secretary-General to provide the Committee with a preliminary draft of a set of provisional rules of procedure prepared on the basis of the relevant resolutions and decisions of the Council, the rules of procedure used by other supervisory bodies in the human rights field, and the experience of the Committee to date. At its third session, the Committee discussed the draft provisional rules of procedure and adopted them, as amended during the discussion. The provisional rules of procedure, as adopted, are contained in Annex IV to the Committee's report on its third session (E/1989/22). At its first regular session in 1989, the Economic and Social Council took note of the provisional rules of procedure adopted by the Committee at its third session and decided to defer consideration of those rules to its first regular session of 1990, and, in the interim, requested the Committee to continue to use rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council as appropriate (Council decision 1989/158).

The Committee, at its third session, agreed to recommend to the Council that its pre-sessional working group should, in the future, be held some one to three months in advance of the Committee's session in order to give the State party adequate notice of the list of issues, and to enable its translation and dissemination in advance to the Committee's members (E/1989/22, para. 338). The Council, at its first regular session in 1989, took no action on this recommendation.

The attention of the members of the Committee is drawn to resolution 1989/81 adopted by the Economic and Social Council at its first regular session in 1989, by which the Council, inter alia, reaffirmed the important role of the Human Rights Committee and the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights with respect to the implementation by States parties of the International Covenants on Human Rights, and expressed its satisfaction with the serious and constructive manner in which the committees were carrying out their functions.

The Council, by the same resolution, decided to transmit the report of the Committee to the General Assembly at its forty-fourth session for consideration under agenda item 98 on the International Covenants on Human Rights. The relevant resolutions of the General Assembly will be made available to the Committee at its fourth session.

5. Submission of reports by States parties in accordance with articles 16 and 17 of the Covenant (Economic and Social Council resolution 1988 (LX), Council decision 1985/132 and Council resolution 1988/4)

In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1979/43, the Committee shall at each session consider the status of submission of reports under article 16 of the Covenant and may make appropriate recommendations in its report to the Council, including recommendations to the effect that the Secretary-General should send reminders to States parties from which reports have not been received. In accordance with Council decision 1981/158, a list of States parties to the Covenant shall be annexed to the report of the Committee on each session, together with an indication of the status of submission of reports for consideration by the Committee.

In connection with the consideration by the Committee of this item, the particular attention of the Committee is drawn to paragraph 6 of Council resolution 1988/4, by which it endorsed the recommendation of the Committee that States parties be requested to submit a single report within two years of the entry into force of the Covenant for the State party concerned and thereafter at five-year intervals. Accordingly, the Committee, at its third session, agreed to request the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Chairman, to draw up a revised schedule for State party's reporting in accordance with the new periodicity arrangements.

The Committee will have before it under this item:

(a) Note by the Secretary-General on the States parties to the Covenant and the status of submission of reports (E/C.12/1990/2).

In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1979/43, the Committee shall normally consider the reports submitted by States parties under article 16 in the order in which they have been received by the Secretary-General. Representatives of the reporting States are entitled to be present at the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined, to make statements on the reports submitted by their States and answer questions which may be put to them by the members of the Committee.

The Committee, at its third session, having discussed the arrangements for the consideration of reports submitted by States parties, requested the Secretary-General to schedule 16 reports for consideration at its fourth session (E/C.12/1989/SR.22, paras. 9-13). The Committee also suggested that, in general, the following allocation of time, for the consideration of each State party report, be followed: 45 minutes of brief introductory comments combined with an initial response to the written list of issues by the representative of the State party (or alternatively 15 minutes if no response was provided to the written list of issues at this point); 60 minutes for questions by members of the Committee and observations by representatives of specialized agencies; 45 minutes, preferably at a subsequent rather than the same meeting, for further replies by the State party; and 30 minutes for concluding observations by Committee members.

In accordance with paragraph 8 of resolution 1979/43, the Secretary-General has informed the States parties concerned of the opening date and duration of the fourth session of the Committee at which their respective reports will be examined and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee.

23. As provided for under article 17 of the Covenant, the Economic and Social Council, by resolution 1988/4 of 24 May 1988 decided to revise its earlier programme of reporting by States parties established in its resolution 1988 (LX) of 2 May 1976 and endorsed the recommendation made by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights at its second session (E/1988/14, para. 351) that States parties be requested to submit a single initial report within two years of the entry into force of the Covenant for the State party concerned and thereafter periodic reports at five-year intervals.

24. In a note verbale dated 30 September 1988, the Secretary-General informed States parties to the Covenant of this decision.

25. As at 1 November 1989, initial reports on articles 1 to 15 of the Covenant, submitted in accordance with Council resolution 1988/4, were received from Luxembourg, Democratic Yemen and Costa Rica; second periodic report on articles 1 to 15 of the Covenant was received from the Syrian Arab Republic.

26. As at 1 November 1989, the following 30 States parties to the Covenant had not yet submitted any reports at all since their ratification of, or accession to, the Covenant: Belgium, Bolivia, Central African Republic, Congo, Dominican Republic, Egypt, El Salvador, Gabon, Gambia, Greece, Guinea, Honduras, Iceland, Kenya, Lebanon, Mali, Mauritius, Morocco, New Zealand, Niger, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, San Marino, Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Suriname, Togo, Uganda, Uruguay and Viet Nam. In accordance with the relevant decisions adopted by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights at its third session (see E/1989/22, para. 337), the Secretary-General, in a note verbale dated 24 May 1989, informed the above-mentioned States parties that their initial reports on articles 1 to 15 of the Covenant should be submitted in one consolidated document by 30 June 1990 and their periodic reports at five-year intervals thereafter.

27. In addition, Equatorial Guinea and Guatemala acceded to the Covenant on 25 September 1987 and 19 May 1988 respectively. In a vote verbale also dated 24 May 1989, the Secretary-General informed them that their initial reports on articles 1 to 15 of the Covenant are to be submitted by 30 June 1990 and their periodic reports at five-year intervals thereafter.

28. The initial reports submitted by the States parties listed in paragraphs 25, 26 and 27 above will be issued as addenda to document E/1990/5.

29. The second periodic reports submitted by the States parties will be issued as addenda to document E/1990/6.

30. The initial reports of Luxembourg (E/1990/5/Add.1), Democratic Yemen (E/1990/5/Add.2), and Costa Rica (E/1990/5/Add.3) as well as the second periodic report of the Syrian Arab Republic (E/1990/6/Add.1) are pending consideration by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.
